The Berks Celtic Oyster Festival is an annual event hosted in Berks County, Pennsylvania designed to present a program that enriches the knowledge of Celtic Music, Celtic Culture, and the history of the Seven Celtic Nations to all attendees. The Berks County area and surrounding counties have a very diverse culture of people with Celtic heritage. It is the goal of our festival committee to provide a program that features the customs and culture native to the Celtic Nations. We strive to provide a diverse lineup of entertainment, foods, crafts and cultural demonstrations that provide an enjoyable and enriching family experience to all who attend this annual event.

St. Brendan's Division 1 AOH is a non-profit organization that participates in various charitable and civic programs in the Berks County area. This organization is proud to host the Berks Celtic Oyster Festival and to provide a quality program for this event. The cost to host this festival however does require assistance from companies and people who share our desire to foster the Celtic Heritage that is so rich in this area.
